Iredox

iredoxtech@gmail.com | +234 800 000 0000 | Lagos, Nigeria

Professional Summary

Dynamic IT professional with a strong foundation in computer science and hands-on experience in web development. Demonstrated expertise in installing, configuring, and maintaining hardware and software systems to ensure optimal performance. Adept at providing technical support and solutions to end-users while fostering a strong commitment to system integrity and data protection.

Key Qualifications

• Acted as the primary IT support for various personal projects, successfully managing helpdesk inquiries and providing remote support.
• Installed, configured, and troubleshot various hardware and software platforms as part of web development projects.
• Implemented data backup protocols and security measures through antivirus software, ensuring the integrity of application data.
• Provided training and guidance to team members on best practices for IT operations and web development frameworks, including React and Node.js.

Professional Experience

Full Stack Web Developer at Personal Projects

Developed various web applications using React, Node.js, and Appwrite. Specialized in automation bots and scalable architectures.